DIAVANTE Diamond Pendant and Ring Set (K18 White Gold)

DIAVANTE ダイヤモンド ペンダントとリング セット
(K18 ホワイトゴールド)

DIAVANTE envisions a woman as a flower blooming from within, like fireworks lighting the darkness. The pendant consists of three small “fireworks,” the triangular shape rests at the bottom of the neck giving a gorgeous three-dimensional, feminine impression even when viewed from the side. The back of the pendant has been polished to perfection. The ring’s three-dimensional design resembles a flower blooming in all its splendor when caressing your finger. The diamonds, seemingly random in placement, sparkle with the movement of your hand.

Copper Red Bowls by Roni Ohara

赤銅色のボウルセット Roni Ohara 作

These bowls are literally thrown onto an electric wheel. The clay is a mixture of koshigaraki, porcelain and biryu – the combination yielding a white body clay that is fun to throw and quite resilient. The copper glaze is fired in a reduction atmosphere, resulting in an exquisite variation of aqua and plum red. For maintenance, a mild detergent is best. Another caution is never to put these bowls in a hot oven nor use them for baking purposes. Also, copper is sensitive to acid, so avoid using these pieces to hold citrus-based foods such as lemons or oranges.
